

Accessibility specific support:

“In the event that the PDF tagging described above is not sufficient for your use, we can perform manual tagging for you. We are also happy to re-format PDFs that are unreadable via screen reader.

Please contact JSTOR support if you require PDF tagging, need content in an alternative format, find an accessibility issue with the website or need general assistance. You can do this via phone, chat or email. Please include citations for any requested articles. The turnaround time for requests will vary but we generally respond in 3 days or less.

- Limit of 3 articles per request
- Turn-around time is 3 days per request

Compliance:

“JSTOR uses reasonable efforts to ensure that the JSTOR website adheres to the following standards and guidelines.

- Section 508 of the Rehabilitation Act. This is measured by the Voluntary Product Accessibility Template (VPAT), which is a standardized form describing how a product meets each accessibility guideline of Section 508.
- W3C WAI WCAG 2.0 Level AA.”
